

WILDCATS U16's 24-47 LICHFIELD

Wildcats without Charley Frost took on the Midlands Schools finalists Lichfield Grammar School in this last fixture before the christmas break.

Jon Bracket equalised an early Lichfield basket in the first minute, and then with superb defense kept Lichfield at bay for the next seven minutes, before Lichfield retook the lead 4-2 in the eighth minute.

All season Wildcats biggest problem has been finding the hoop, and this game was no different as excellent defense floundered on not scoring at the other end and so Lichfield started to find their range and by the 11th minute held a 10-2 advantage.

Ben Head and Jon Brackett with two more stemmed the tide, but could not stop Lichfield taking a half time lead 22-8

The second half saw two 3-pointers from Chris Stevens, enable the Wildcats to gain confidence and take on the home side and as a result the opening 12 minutes saw Wildcats hold a slender lead 16-15 although the game score was 24-37.

With Wildcats now starting to tire, Lichfield took advantage over the last three minutes to rattle in ten unanswered points to give a somewhat distorted view to the final score a 23 point win to the home side Lichfield.

Chris Stevens finally found his scoring form, and

Jon Brackett had his finest game in a Wildcats shirt to date, and Neil Goode continued to dominate the boards with another massive 19 rebounds

Jon Brackett 6 pts 6 Steals
